

United Nations
World Food Programme

WORLD FOOD PROGRAMME (New Delhi, India)

Vacancy Announcement: No. WFP IND/SSA/2010/011

The United Nations World Food Programme (WFP) office in New Delhi, India is seeking qualified candidates to fill the following vacancy:

Fleet Safety Specialist for Fleet Forum

Job Purpose:

To assist organization in implementing Fleet Safety; to train staff in fleet Safety management; to support the India Road Safety Partnership; to contribute to the development of new Fleet Forum partnerships and projects which contribute to the overall Fleet Forum strategy; to actively promote Fleet Forum and its Fleet Safety projects amongst Fleet Forum target audience in India.

The incumbent shall have the following key responsibilities:

- To be responsible for the day to day implementation of Fleet Safety projects according to project plan, Key Performance Indicators and deliverables
- To support the development of Fleet Safety projects and advocacy initiatives aimed at promoting fleet safety amongst senior policy decision makers in India
- To provide input to Fleet Forum communication
- To sell (under supervision of Fleet Safety Project Manager) Fleet Forum consultancy services to aid and development organizations and fleet operators on a cost recovery base

Qualifications & Experience required:

- Education: Senior secondary school, supplemented by technical or university courses in the related field.
- Experience:
At least 3 years experience in Fleet Management or Fleet Operations and keen to work within a professional environment. Understanding of transport safety issues in India. As important will be a strong relational approach and track record in effective project management with different stakeholders. The post-holder will need to demonstrate full sympathy with Fleet Forum's Vision, Mission, and Core Values.
- Technical Skills and Knowledge:
Exceptional inter-personal skills, with proven networking, representational abilities with individuals and institutions. A good working knowledge of Fleet Management (preferably relating to humanitarian organizations, commercial transporters and governments in low and middle income countries. Experienced training skills.

- Language:
Fluency in both oral and written communication in English and Hindi. Additional local language will be an asset.
- Entry on Duty: Immediately

The United Nations World Food Programme is an equal opportunity employer.

The United Nations World Food Programme is the world largest Humanitarian organization: each year, we give food to an average of 90 million poor people to meet their nutritional needs, including 58 million hungry children, in at least 80 of the world's poorest countries. WFP hosts the Fleet Forum, the first interagency humanitarian knowledge centre focused on issues of transport and how it impacts development goals.

How to apply:

Applications including an updated CV and Telephone contact/email address for this vacancy should be sent by email to job.India@wfp.org indicating the vacancy announcement number and the Post Title in the subject of your email. Only short-listed candidates will be contacted for interview.

Vacancy Announcement deadline is: 26 July 2010 to 9 August 2010